MEDIA RELEASE

GOLD FIELDS FINALISES EXECUTIVE TEAM

Johannesburg, 4 August 2009: Gold Fields Limited (Gold Fields) (JSE, NYSE, NASDAQ Dubai: GFI) today announced the appointment of three additional members to its Group executive team, reporting to Chief Executive Officer of Gold Fields, Nick Holland.

- Peter Turner has been appointed as Executive Vice President: Head of the West Africa Region;
- Juan Luis Kruger ("Juancho") has been appointed as Executive Vice President: Head of Operations for South America; and
- Ben Zikmundovsky has been appointed as Executive Vice President: Head of International Capital Projects and International Technical Services.

Nick Holland said:

"With these three executive appointments the Gold Fields Executive Team is now complete and the senior leadership in place to progress Gold Fields' new regionalization strategy."

"Peter and Juan Luis will take responsibility for all operational activities in their respective regions, and will work with the Business Development and Exploration teams to grow production in each of their regions, to achieve our medium-term target of one million ounces of production within four years from each of these regions."

"Ben will take responsibility for all international growth projects as well as the International Technical Group. This is a key appointment considering the extensive growth pipeline and the number of advanced stage projects which we hope to bring to account over the next few years."

Peter Turner, who trained as a Mechanical Engineer, has more than 34 years of experience in the mining industry. He moved to Ghana in 2008 when he was appointed Vice President of Operations and before that he headed up the Kloof Gold Mine in South Africa. Prior to joining Gold Fields in 2005, he was the General Manager, East and West Africa Region for AngloGold Ashanti where he spent the majority of his career. He progressed through the ranks, starting as an Engineering Trainee at Vaal Reefs in 1975, later spending time in various managerial positions at numerous gold mining operations.

Juancho Kruger, has a Bachelor degree in Business and Finance and a Masters Degree in Business Administration, and has over fifteen years of broad experience in corporate finance, strategic planning and general management in the mining, consumer goods, airline, telecommunications and financial services industries in South America. Juancho joined Gold Fields in October 2007 as Senior Vice President and Country Manager for the Peruvian Operations, and lead the start up team at Cerro Corona. As of April 2008, he assumed responsibilities for the South American region. Prior to joining the company he held senior management positions for LAN Airlines, Glencore, McKinsey&Co., Telefonica and Procter&Gamble in South America.

Ben Zikmundovsky, originally trained as a Mechanical Engineer, has over 30 years' experience in the development of companies, operations and projects in the mining, mineral processing, construction and equipment industries on the African continent, in South America, the former Soviet Union countries, the Middle East and in Europe. Ben started his career in 1973 as a Project Design Engineer for Roberts Union Corporation (RUC) in South Africa, and has since worked in various capacities ranging from Group Projects Director for Lenning Holdings (JCI-South Africa), Business Manager for Bechtel Australia and, until recently, as Managing Director Africa for GRD Minproc Limited.
